

NEWS RELEASE

CITY OF ASHEVILLE • PO Box 7148 • Asheville, NC 28802

FROM THE ASHEVILLE PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT

Contact: Debbie Ivester, 828-259-5804

For Immediate Release

Date: January 22, 2003

ASHEVILLE YOUTH PRESENT “TO TELL THE STORY”

Asheville, NC – The Asheville Parks and Recreation Department will present “To Tell the Story” at the Reid Center for Creative Arts, Feb. 6 at 6 p.m. The play is part of the creative theater residency program under the direction of April Turner with youth from the Burton Street and Reid Centers. This entertaining performance interprets current social issues experienced by many Asheville youth through dance and poetry. Tickets are $5 and available at the Reid Center, 133 Livingston St. 30% discount on group tickets of 20 or more. For information, call the Reid Center at 350-2048.

For information on Asheville Parks and Recreation, call 259-5800 or visit www.ashevilleparks.org.

###

Asheville Parks and Recreation Department
2002 Gold Medal Winner
1st Nationally Accredited Municipal Recreation Department
www.ashevilleparks.org